

Pursuant to § 33(3) and (4) of Order No. 196/2023 of the Rector of the University of Wrocław of 25 August 2023 on the introduction of the Regulations on benefits for students of the University of Wrocław, as amended, I hereby determine as follows:

REGULATIONS FOR ACCOMMODATION
AT THE UNIVERSITY OF WROCLAW FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2026/2027

GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. All residents of the dormitories are required to comply with the regulations applicable within the dormitories.
2. Priority in the allocation of a place in the dormitory is given to full-time and evening students of the University of Wrocław who are in a difficult financial situation and students of the University of Wrocław with a disability certificate or refugee status. If the number of persons applying for a place in a dormitory is higher than the number of available places, the granting of a place is also dependent on the distance from the place of permanent residence.
3. Application for a place in a dormitory for the academic year 2026/2027 will be submitted as follows:
 - a) Full-time and evening students and doctoral students of the University of Wrocław submit applications electronically, according to the adopted schedule, via the USOS system (<https://usosweb.uni.wroc.pl>).
 - b) Students/doctoral students coming to full-time paid studies in English (first year) apply online for a place in the dormitory via the IRC system. The rules/conditions of accommodation will be provided after the allocation of a place via the above system. The number of places is limited (according to the order of applications).
 - c) Students admitted to study at the University of Wrocław under the MOST Programme apply for a place in the dormitory by sending an e-mail to the Student Affairs Department: dormitories@uwr.edu.pl together with a certificate from the University Accreditation Committee confirming the fact of being admitted to study at the University of Wrocław. After receiving the e-mail, the Student Affairs Department will send the student an application form, which should be filled in, scanned and sent back to the above-mentioned address of the Student Affairs Department.

- d) Participants of the courses at the Intensive English Language Centre and of the One Year Intensive Course at the School of Polish Language and Culture for Foreigners at the University of Wrocław, apply for accommodation in the dormitory in the aforementioned unit.

The units will receive from the Student Affairs Department the limits of places in individual dormitories as well as information on prices and, on this basis, will forward lists of persons to be accommodated to particular dormitories on previously agreed dates. The lists are a confirmation of the fact of participation in the course.

The units provide course participants with information regarding accommodation conditions and fees in accordance with the received information.

Detailed information regarding accommodation conditions and payments may also be provided, upon request, by a dormitory administration staff member.

Course participants will pay accommodation fees in accordance with the price list applicable to non-students.

4. The price list for accommodation fees (for students) in dormitories for the academic year 2026/2027 will be announced in July 2026 on the website: <https://uwr.edu.pl/en/student-houses/price-list/>.
5. Residents of the dormitories shall make their accommodation payment by the 5th of each month. Exceeding the payment deadline will result in statutory interest being charged for each day of delay.
6. Payments will be credited towards the oldest due liabilities, regardless of the transfer title. In the case of outstanding arrears, the paid amounts will first cover those arrears.
7. In the event of failure to make a timely payment for accommodation, the dormitory may issue a demand for payment of outstanding amounts. Failure to make the payment within the deadline specified in the demand may result in the initiation of court proceedings or notification of the Border Guard in order to verify the circumstances referred to in Article 302(1)(6) of the Act on Foreigners (Journal of Laws of 2024, item 769, 1222, 1688, as amended).
8. Payments for accommodation should be made by non-cash payment (bank transfer) to an individual bank account generated in the USOS system, SOMA or to the bank account indicated by the dormitory (in the absence of an individual account).

9. All bank transfer fees, including international transfer charges and currency conversion costs, shall be borne by the student both when paying and when receiving the refund of the dues. The University of Wrocław shall not be responsible for any charges applied by the sending bank, intermediary banks, or the receiving bank.
10. Students/doctoral students will be accommodated in double rooms. Residents who would like to live in single rooms after they have been accommodated in the dormitory shall apply to the administration of the dormitory. Single rooms will be allocated if this is possible. In this case, the deposit will be increased.
11. Students/doctoral students with disabilities applying for a place in a dormitory are obliged to contact the Student Affairs Department at dormitories@uwr.edu.pl in order to send documents confirming the degree of their disability or other relevant documentation (refers to students currently studying and students admitted for the first year of full-time/evening studies). In the case of application via the USOS system, the documentation should be attached to the application.

Students/doctoral students with disabilities may apply for a single room. Single rooms will be allocated if this is possible. Single rooms will be allocated if this is possible.

DEPOSIT

12. The deposit secures the reservation of a place and it is a security to cover any losses caused by destruction or loss of property in the dormitory and other financial obligations on the day of check-out or the date on which the University of Wrocław submits a declaration of exercising its right to use the deposit.

The University of Wrocław may settle any claims it holds against the resident or former resident of the dormitory. The University of Wrocław is entitled to satisfy such claims from the deposit at any time. In such a case, the resident/former resident is obliged to replenish the deposit amount within 14 days from the date of delivery of the notice of its use, under penalty of losing the right to reside in the dormitory. The University of Wrocław reserves the right to pursue compensation claims exceeding the deposit amount.

13. People applying for a place in the dormitory are required to pay the deposit by transfer, in accordance with the issued charge and by the specified due date, subject to point 14-18, 26.

14. After receiving information confirming the granting of a place in the dormitories, a deposit should be made to an individual bank account generated in the USOS system, SOMA or to the bank account indicated by the dormitory (in the absence of an individual account).

The deposit will amount to: 2200 PLN in the case of allocation of a place in a double room and 2200 PLN in the case of allocation of a single room for:

1. persons who are not citizens of the Republic of Poland and do not hold a permanent residence permit, including students/doctoral students of the University of Wrocław,
2. persons who are not students, including participants of courses at the Intensive English Language Centre and of the One Year Intensive Course at the School of Polish Language and Culture for Foreigners at the University of Wrocław, both citizens and non-citizens of the Republic of Poland,
3. students/doctoral students of other universities, both citizens and non-citizens of the Republic of Poland.

The deposit will amount to: 1000 PLN in the case of allocation of a place in a double room and from 1000 PLN to 2200 PLN in the case of allocation of a single room for:

1. citizens of the Republic of Poland,
2. persons holding a permanent residence permit in the Republic of Poland (decision or residence card). Persons holding a permanent residence permit in Poland are obliged to provide their permanent residence address in Poland in the application. In the case of submitting an application via the USOS system – the above-mentioned documentation should be attached to the application.

A detailed schedule of payments can be found in appendix no. 1.

15. Persons who have already paid the deposit are obliged to supplement it to the required amount within the deadline specified in the schedule for electronic submission of applications.
16. Students/doctoral students who were residents of dormitories in previous years and repeatedly failed on their accommodation fees or failed to fulfill the obligations of a resident, upon the request of the Head of the dormitory may be required to pay an increased deposit. The decision in this matter will be made by the Vice-Rector for Student Affairs.
17. Failure to pay the deposit within the deadline specified in the schedule will mean resignation from the assigned place in the dormitory and will result in the removal of the student/doctoral student from the list of people qualified for accommodation.

18. The day of payment is considered to be the day on which the transfer is credited to the student's individual bank account generated in the USOS system, SOMA or to the bank account indicated by the dormitory (in the absence of an individual account).

REFUND OF THE DEPOSIT

19. The application for refund of the deposit must be submitted (in person or by e-mail) to the administration of the dormitory where the student/doctoral student was allocated a place.
20. The deposit will be return after the room/module has been vacated, the resident has settled all financial and material obligations with the dormitory administration, and a computer-filled application for refund of the deposit (available on the websites of the respective dormitories) has been submitted to the dormitory administration—provided that no damage to the room, its furnishings, or common areas of the building has occurred due to the fault of the student/doctoral student, subject to points 7, 9, 18 and 21–27.

Handwritten applications will not be considered.

The deposit will be refunded to the bank account from which the payment was originally made. If a different bank account is indicated for the refund, a justification for the change must be provided.

Transfer of the settled deposit to the account indicated in the application will be made no later than within 30 working days. The University of Wroclaw is not responsible for delays in transfers resulting from incorrectly completed applications.

21. The deposit may be used to cover arrears in fees for the last month of stay, provided that there are no grounds for its use in connection with other liabilities.
22. The administration of the dormitory is authorized to check the cleanliness of the rooms and sanitary facilities of the dormitories. In the event of a gross violation of the rules for maintaining order in rooms and sanitary facilities, the cost of cleaning will be covered by the deposit.

The value of the damage caused and the persons responsible are determined by the Head of the dormitory. If the person responsible cannot be identified, the residents of the respective room/module are jointly and severally liable for damages.

23. A resident of the dormitory is required to vacate the room/module in a proper state of cleanliness and in no worse condition than it was at the time it was handed over for use.

The resident shall not be held liable for wear and tear resulting from normal and proper use.

24. If the deposit is not sufficient to cover the costs referred to in point 12 and 21-27 or other regulations resulting from non-compliance with the accommodation rules, the dormitory resident is obliged to immediately pay the missing amount.

25. People who have previously paid a deposit, but before settling in on time by October 2, 2026, they will submit a written resignation from their place in the dormitory and the application referred to in point 19-20, they will receive a refund of the deposit to the indicated bank account.

26. The deposit is refundable only after the definitive termination of accommodation in the dormitory. Temporary check-out, including during the holiday period, does not constitute grounds for a refund of the deposit if the resident retains the right to the place.

In the case of persons who, by submitting an application in the USOS system or by e-mail to the dormitory administration or the Student Affairs Department, declare their intention to retain a place in the dormitory for the next academic year, the deposit is not refundable during the holiday period and during absence, and remains at the disposal of the dormitory until the definitive termination of accommodation.

In the event of an increase in the deposit amount, the difference must be paid in accordance with the issued charge and by the specified due date.

27. The deposit is not refundable if the student/doctoral student:

- does not move into the dormitory by October 2, 2026,
- was deprived of the right to reside in the dormitory for a gross violation of the Regulations during the period of residence,
- does not submit a written resignation from a place in the dormitory by October 2, 2026. A written resignation shall be understood as an e-mail message sent to the administration of the specific dormitory.

In exceptional cases, the deposit may be refunded upon the student's written request, based on a decision issued by the Vice-Rector for Student Affairs.

CHECKING IN AND CHECKING OUT

28. Students accommodated in the dormitories before October 1, 2026, pay the following fees according to the holiday price list.
29. Foreign students/doctoral students - participants of international programs - arriving at dormitories before the beginning of the semester will be charged daily according to the rate from the price list applicable to students and doctoral students, increased by 8% VAT.
30. Students admitted to the first year of full-time and evening studies at the University of Wrocław — both first-cycle (Bachelor's) and long-cycle Master's programs — who arrive at the dormitories before the semester begins will be charged daily rates according to the price list for non-students/non-doctoral students, increased by 8% VAT.
31. The University of Wrocław does not provide family rooms/modules nor co-educational rooms/ modules.
32. Foreign students/doctoral students are accommodated in all of the dormitories the University of Wrocław on the dates and times stated on the website according to the accommodation schedule posted on the website.
33. The accommodation schedule will be posted on a website: <https://uwr.edu.pl/en/student-houses/> in the first week of September.
34. Only in exceptional situations, and after prior arrangement of the date and time of arrival with a dormitory administration staff member, it is possible to arrive outside the scheduled accommodation period.

Such arrangements must be made no later than 3 business days before the planned arrival via email.

35. Check-in (outside of the above schedule) and check-out during the academic year takes place on weekdays from Monday to Friday between 9:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. Any additional information relating to check-in will be provided on the website: <https://uwr.edu.pl/en/student-houses/>.

36. Students/doctoral students are accommodated according to the accommodation schedule. When checking in, the person moving in must present:
- 1) necessary forms (documents), downloaded from the website of the respective dormitory and legibly completed electronically,
 - 2) identity card/passport (originals for inspection),
 - 3) a valid document entitling to stay in the Republic of Poland, e.g. visa, temporary residence card - for foreigners (originals for inspection),
 - 4) student identity card (if issued),
 - 5) ATTENTION! Minors are obliged to present the consent of their parents/legal guardians to live in the dormitory. The declaration must be downloaded from the website of the specific dormitory.
37. The dormitories of the University of Wrocław adhere to standards for the protection of minors against harm.
38. Students/doctoral students are obliged to comply with registration regulations in accordance with the Act of 24 September 2010 on population records (Journal of Laws 2025 item 274, as amended).
- Each newly accommodated person is obliged within 4 days to report to the Registration Office in order to complete registration formalities.
- Verification of compliance with the registration obligation is carried out on the basis of information obtained by the University of Wrocław from the competent population register authority.
- Detailed instructions regarding the procedure will be provided by a dormitory administration employee on the day of accommodation.
39. Persons doing their compulsory internship provided for in the study plan outside Wrocław shall be accommodated upon their return from the internship and shall pay a fee from the date of accommodation. They are required to inform the dormitory administration by 30th September 2026.
40. In individual cases, the Head of the dormitory shall decide, whether there are reasons justifying a later accommodation.
41. The status of students/doctoral students - residents of the dormitories - will be verified by the administration of the dormitory in the USOS system. If the student's/doctoral student's data is not available in USOS, he/she will be required, immediately upon receiving a summons from the dormitory administration, to present the original certificate from the Dean's Office confirming his/her status as a student/doctoral student.

Failure to do so will result in a charge being made in accordance with the ad hoc accommodation price list, and the person will lose the right to accommodation and will be required to move out within 7 days.

Residents are required to keep the administration of the dormitory informed of any change in their student/doctoral status.

42. Residents of dormitories - students/doctoral students/scholars from other institutions of higher education - are required to present to the dormitory administration (at the time of enrolment or within seven days of receiving a summons from the dormitory administration at the latest) an original certificate (with their album number) from the Dean's Office certifying that they are studying in the next semester.

Failure to do so will result in a fee being charged in accordance will lose their right to accommodation and will be obliged to move out of the dormitory within 7 days.

Residents are required to keep the administration of the dormitories to informed about of any change in their status as a student/doctoral student.

43. Moving out during the month does not exempt the resident from paying the fee by the end of the month in which the move out takes place. Only in months where there is an examination session, the fee is charged on a daily basis - until the day of check-out.

In the case of accommodation handled by the USOS system, the monthly fee is divided by 30 days, regardless of the number of days in a given month.

In the case of accommodation handled by the SOMA system, the monthly fee is divided by the number of days in the given calendar month.

a) The intention to check out must be reported to the dormitory administration no later than by the end of the month preceding the planned check-out. 7 working days before check-out, the details of the check-out must be agreed.

b) In particularly justified cases, a resident of the dormitory may apply to be charged until the day of check-out. The decision in this matter is made by the Vice-Rector for Student Affairs. The application together with justification should be submitted to the dormitory administration.

c) In the event of loss of the right to reside in the dormitory, the student/doctoral student shall pay the fee for the actual period of accommodation.

44. After the end of the study at the university, accommodation may be extended only in justified cases, with the consent of the Vice-Rector for Student Affairs. The request must be sent by e-mail to the administration of the dormitory in which the student/doctoral student resides at least seven working days before the end of the semester. A daily fee applies, according to the price list for non-students.

LOSS OF RIGHT OF RESIDENCE

45. A student resident of the dormitory may lose the right to residence when:

1. has lost the status of a student/doctoral student at the University of Wrocław or another university, including after graduation,
2. has changed the mode of study from full-time/evening to extramural,
3. is in arrears with payment for accommodation for more than 1 month,
4. has obtained a place in the dormitory on the basis of false data,
5. has given up his/her place to a person not entitled to live in the dormitory,
6. has damaged the property located in the dormitory,
7. has violated the rules of social co-existence,
8. does not observe the rules of fire protection or hinders the evacuation action,
9. has been convicted of a crime prosecuted by a final court judgement prosecuted by public indictment,
10. does not comply with the regulations in force in the dormitories and at the University of Wrocław,
11. other circumstances specified in these regulations arise that result in the loss of the right to reside.

The decision in the aforementioned cases is made by the Vice-Rector for Student Affairs.

A person who has lost the right to live in a dormitory is obliged to settle all obligations and check out within seven days of receiving the decision.

Restoration of the right to residence shall be possible only with the consent of the Vice-Rector for Student Affairs and requires the submission of a request for approval of continued/re-established accommodation to the Student Affairs Department. The document should be sent by e-mail to dormitories@uwr.edu.pl

CHANGE IN THE RESIDENT'S STATUS (form of studies, faculty, field of study)

46. A change in the situation of the dormitory occupant in relation to their studies, e.g. change of faculty, field of study or mode of study (e.g. change from full-time to part-time mode), requires that this be reported to the administration of the dormitory. If the change concerns a student/doctoral student of another university, an application should be submitted to the Vice-Rector for Student Affairs and accompanied by an original certificate from the Dean's Office confirming the change. The documents should be sent by e-mail to: dormitories@uwr.edu.pl.

CHANGING THE DORMITORY

47. Students who wish to move to another dormitory during the academic year for justifiable reasons, may submit an online request with justification to the Student Affairs Department (dormitories@uwr.edu.pl). The decision in the above-mentioned cases is made by the Vice-Rector for Student Affairs.

A change of room within the dormitory or a change of the dormitory between dormitories: Kredka - Ołówek and Słowianka - Parawanowiec, the student/doctoral student arranges this with the administration of the dormitory.

FOREIGN STUDENTS/DOCTORAL CANDIDATES ADMITTED TO THE FIRST YEAR OF STUDIES, APPLYING THROUGH THE IRC SYSTEM

48. For organizational reasons, foreign students/doctoral students admitted to the first year of full-time studies in English, applying through the IRC system, have reserved places in the dormitories until October 2, 2026, provided that the deposit is paid by September 16, 2026.

After this date, the University of Wrocław does not guarantee accommodation.

The aforementioned students/doctoral students pay the deposit to the general bank account of the dormitory or to an individual account number in the USOS system, if one has been generated.

49. Failure to pay the deposit by September 16, 2026, will be considered as a resignation from the place in the dormitory and will result in the removal of the student/doctoral student from the list of persons qualified for accommodation.

50. In the event that the student/doctoral student does not move into the dormitory by October 2, 2026, he/she will be removed from the list of persons qualified for accommodation.

The student/doctoral student may apply for a refund of the deposit by submitting an application in accordance with points 19-20.

51. In the event of removal from the list of persons qualified for accommodation, the student/doctoral student may reapply for a place in the dormitory by submitting an application to the Student Affairs Department via email at: dormitories@uwr.edu.pl.

Detailed rules regarding individual referrals are specified in points 54-60.

52. In the case of accommodation before the beginning of the semester, a daily fee is charged in accordance with the price list as for non-students/doctoral students, increased by 8% VAT.

Charging of fees according to the price list as for students/doctoral students will only be possible after Dean's Office has entered the person concerned in the USOS system.

53. Students/doctoral students participating in the 2-week Preparatory Polish Language Course may check in at the dormitory at the earliest 3 days before the beginning of the course and then pay the daily fee according to the price list as for non-students/doctoral students, increased by 8% VAT.

APPLYING FOR ACCOMMODATION AFTER THE DEADLINE

54. After the end of the main electronic admissions, in the case of vacant places, it will be possible to apply for a place in the dormitory after submitting an individual application sent by e-mail to the Student Affairs Department at: dormitories@uwr.edu.pl.

The aforementioned persons, if they receive a referral, will be obliged to move into the dormitory within 7 working days from the date specified in the referral. In the case of later arrival, the dormitory administration must be notified.

Failure to report to the administration of the dormitory within the aforementioned time limit will be regarded as a resignation from the assigned place.

55. The deposit must be paid within 7 days of receiving the information about being granted a place in the dormitory. The payment should be made to the individual bank account generated in the USOS or SOMA system, or to the bank account number indicated by the dormitory (if no individual account has been generated).

56. If the move-in date is earlier than 7 days from receiving the information about being granted a place in the dormitory, the deposit must be paid before moving into the dormitory.

57. If a person who has paid the deposit does not intend to move in on the date specified in the referral, they may apply for a refund of the deposit.

The condition for the refund is that the dormitory administration must be informed of the resignation from the assigned place no later than the date on which the person was supposed to move into the dormitory.

58. The deposit is non-refundable if the dormitory administration is informed about the resignation from the assigned place after the date specified in the referral.

In particularly justified cases, part of the deposit may be refunded—after deducting the reservation fees—based on a decision by the Vice-Rector for Student Affairs.

59. Monthly accommodation fees in the dormitory will be charged starting from the date specified in the referral.

60. Foreign students/doctoral students - participants of international programmes - applying for a place during the academic year are required to submit an application to the Student Affairs Department, by e-mail to: dormitories@uwr.edu.pl.

In the case of students/doctoral students from other universities, an original certificate from the Dean's Office confirming their status as a student/doctoral student should be attached.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

61. In justified cases the Vice-Rector for Student Affairs may deny accommodation in the University's dormitories.

62. Those who did not receive a place in the dormitory during the electronic intake in the USOS system have the right to appeal this decision by submitting an online application to the Student Affairs Department. The appeal should be sent by email to: dormitories@uwr.edu.pl within 7 days of receiving information about not having been granted a place in the dormitory.

63. All information related to these rules, deadlines, information and criteria for applying for a place in the dormitories will be made known by posting them in the dormitories and on website: <https://uwr.edu.pl/en/student-houses/>.
64. Information concerning the granting/not granting of a place in the dormitory or the need to correct an application will be sent by e-mail to students/doctoral students. They are kindly requested to check their university e-mail address and USOS system regularly during the recruitment period in accordance with the schedule.
65. In the event of unforeseen circumstances, all residents of student dormitories are required to comply with the instructions issued by the dormitory administration and other competent authorities.
66. During their stay in the dormitory, residents are required to contact the Student Affairs Department and the dormitory administration exclusively via their university email address. Individuals registered through the SOMA system must use the email address provided during registration.

FINAL PROVISIONS

67. Accommodation rules and the accommodation schedule are subject to change. Interpretation of the provisions of these rules is at the discretion of the Rector of the University of Wrocław or persons authorised by him/her.

Students and doctoral students are obliged to keep abreast of announcements and information appearing on the University's website and to adapt to any changes.

Information concerning accommodation in the dormitories can be obtained at telephone number: 71 343 06 18.
